

In This Section

Editor's Notebook Page 2
Amusements Pages 6-10
Business Report Pages 11-16

Features - Editorials

SUNDAY, JANUARY 31, 1971

SECTION B

HIS INCREDIBLE FIRST-HAND STORY

The Victim Zodiac Failed to Kill

BY JERRY LABLANC
On the afternoon of Sept. 27, 1968, Jerry Hartnell, a tall, slender junior at Pacific Union College, was enjoying an almost idyllic time picnicking with coed Celia Ann Shepard.

WANTED poster for THOMAS J. CAGELL, COPY OF POLICE. Includes mugshot and details: 35-45 Years, approximately 5'8", Heavy Build, Short Brown Hair, possibly with Red Tint, Wears Glasses. Armed with 9 MM Automatic.

brutality of the murders and the killer's bravado, people from all over the world sent advice and information to help capture the man who calls himself Zodiac.

Your Income Tax Official Guide to Changes. FOUR EXEMPTIONS: $625 x 4 = $2500. Exemption Goes Up To $625.

tipoff inside the news with the people who make it.

Chamber to Study Ships
The State Chamber of Commerce is completing a survey which will show that year-round shipping on the Great Lakes could bring Michigan $100 million annually in added tax revenue.

Their Money on Jerry
Money is being raised here and in California by supporters of former Detroit Mayor Jerome P. Cavanagh who was ousted by Robert C. Griffin.

He's a Journalist
The administration of Flint Southwestern High School came under fire from the Michigan Civil Rights Commission last week for failing to calm racial hostilities in the school.

Sandy Joins Up
Defeated gubernatorial candidate Ruder Bantz has joined the Detroit law firm of Jaffe, Sinder, Garratt and Houser.

Bearfacing the Boss
Some of Sen. Philip Hart's Capitol Hill staffers, edgy about political reaction to their boss' new beard, had been hoping he would show before he returned from a Caribbean vacation a few weeks ago.

Two to a Customer, Please
An information operator in Dayton, Ohio, told a caller from Detroit last week that there were four persons listed in the Dayton phone book with the name the caller had requested.

the Nazis County sheriff's office and described the final details. "He—the Zodiac—not only took his time to write his message on Hartnell's car door, but then he drove away—"

"Again and again the foot-long blade penetrated through his body and he could feel his consciousness draining. Seven times the knife went through..."

IN 'THE GARDEN OF ALLAH' Benchley's Binges—Barrymore's Wake

In his heyday, Hollywood's Garden of Allah, an unconventional hotel on Sunset Blvd., was the playground and haven for stars and writers who wanted to escape the public eye.

THE SIGNS of Zodiac start in earnest, growing convulsively north of San Francisco, southeast of Los Angeles to Napa County north of San Francisco.

HE had a dinner date at the Players, he explained, after awaking his breath. He had been too afraid to cross Sunset Boulevard from the Garden, and too ashamed to call a taxi driver's contempt, he would.

